Dear Gail: At this time I want to send the love and condolences of my family to yours. Our hearts go out to you and your family. I know that you provided the needed care for your mom and that you did all that was possible during her illness. I knew your mom to be kind and loving and a very warm person. May Jehovah give you and your family the strength and comfort during this time of grieving. Please take comfort in the fact that there is no greater place for your mom to be than in Jehovah's memory. As Psalms 37:28 states: For Jehovah loves justice, and he will not abandon his loyal ones. They will always be guarded". Your mom was faithful to the end and Jehovah will indeed remember her in the resurrection. He has a longing to bring her back and when she comes back she will rejoice on seeing you all. Charles J. Dear Gail and Patricia, I send the love and condolences from my family to yours. We will continue to keep your family in our prayers that you may continue to endure the sadness that the death of a loved one brings - especially our dear spiritual Sister Jean. I remember street witnessing on Broadway in Brooklyn with her. Grabbing an early Saturday morning hot beverage at Meyer's Deli on Broadway near Gates Av in the winter after an hour in the cold winters. The encouragement that she and Pat provided me as a preteen and teen enabled me to choose Pioneer ministry over secular endeavors when I graduated High School. Her love for you is only surpassed by her love of Jehovah. Please know that she will be looking for all of you when she awakens in the resurrection. We plan to share your joy on that day, as we share your sorrow on this one. With heartfelt sympathies, Sherry Ann [Carroll] Broughton & Family
