Its been hard quiet crazy days since u left us and the weirdest things have been happening since u left us. Jewel me and you grew up together from herty park we lived in the same house watch each other cry got on school bus together did each other homework we always looked out for each other in herty park we had our own family tree and nobody could ever break it. U know we use to always argue we the oldest but im the oldest by 1 day so u let me make it on that one. Jewel you will be truly missed in me and my family heart I cant believe you are gone I hope one day god will let us morn together my friend you more my family then a friend you are special to me and my family and we loved you and we will never fprget you

Carl Coutee lit a candle in honor of Jewel.

A very cool dude always was himself and never changed. Always a real friend and kept a smile. I can still hear his little chuckle when I think of him. You will always be missed homie. Rest. In. Peace
