Sonny-Boy, I love you and I will miss you very much. You are a big part of my childhood. You are the only Sonny-Boy that I know. I've never met anyone like you (tall, quiet, funny and smart with a contagious smile). Thank you for all the wonderful summers where we played, laughed and just hung out on the old school-yard in Wells, Texas. Me and my sister Carla got in a lot of trouble sneaking down the hill to your house (LOL), but it's okay, it was worth the trip because she loved you and I loved you too (not to mention my big crush on Dale). You blessed us with my beautiful and wonderful niece, Shiree and for that I am thankful. I know we will see each other again (in heaven) and I am glad that you were a part of my life. Rest in peace Sonny-Boy. I love you. Love always, Debra Darks
