To my Aunt Katie, the last of a great generation! I will truly miss you. Although I did not see you often, just knowing you were there and the last of my mother's generation was comforting. We still had a grand Matriarch ruling the family. You have been a part of my life since I was born and your passing touches me deeply. I am of an age that I can bask in the fact that I know you are now in a glorious place with your beloved husband and sons and other family members, including my mother, who have gone before you. Your presence here will be missed but you are now in the one Place we all wish to be someday, with our Precious Lord. I love you.
