Tommy Dennis was born on Pearl Harbor Day in Tyler County to the late Maxine Sanders and Earl Dennis. He was a very good grandfather and uncle. He was a proud Scott High Panther until his demise. Tommy was a truck driver and often talked about his adventures while hauling mobile homes all across the country. Sometimes he was called the "Wide Load" by many friends and family due to his awesome driving skills. He was a retired Crain driver for Lufkin Industries. Tommy enjoyed fishing, hunting, and bull riding.

He is survived by his step daughter, Kasandra "Gina" Majone, Huntington, Grandson, Blake Malone (Lindsay) of Willis, and granddaughter, Kennedi Smith, Huntington.
