Such a sweet, soft spoken and Christian lady. When Elbert & I built our New house by Lala Hill Baptist Church she would occasionally stop by when we were in the yard mowing or gardening and visit for a moment. Always wished I had known her better because her light truly showed thru.Elbert & Sara Platt

No one ever had a better friend than Annie Belle Robertson! A precious lady who loved God and her family and friends. In about 1990 while living in Huntington, I suffered a severe case of flu and Annie Belle came to my house. She had been praying for me and the Lord told her to come and sit beside my bed. I don't know how long she stayed but she prayed for me while I slept and I recovered shortly thereafter. We visited by telephone several times after I moved to Idaho and I cherish her memory. Rest in peace dear friend. Annie Belle and her husband Charles raised very fine children and I am sure you call her blessed and will always be thankful for her love and prayers. I pray God comfort each of you as you sorrow because of her passing. Sincerely, Ellen Platt Rogers

Mother Robertson was such a beautiful lady. I loved her and she loved me. She always made me feel welcome when I would see her at church and she always greeted me with a smile. I will miss seeing her at some of the church services that we use to attend together. What a beautiful strong powerful woman of God. She will truly be missed 💔
