Born on March 14, 1965 in Lufkin, Texas was none other than Mr. Norris Dale McClendon, Sr. Possessing a smile that lit up the night sky coupled with an undeniable laugh that would catch the attention of all those within his reach is a wonderful way of describing Norris Dale on his best days. Norris enjoyed having fun and spending time with family and friends. Christmas was his favorite holiday, because he loved the festive and uplifting atmosphere in which that time of year would bring. Norris loved speaking proudly about and to his children, nieces, and nephews, displaying his hopes that their futures are filled with success and happiness. He showed straight from his heart how genuinely happy he was for others. Like anyone else, Norris Dale started out with hopes and dreams. And he journeyed through life, like anyone else, he ran into multiple pathways and chose his way, some knowingly and some unknowingly, some right and some wrong. One of Norris' dreams and pathways he started down was being a track star because he recognized he had the speed, stamina, and determination. Although he did not continue in his reach to be a track star he did enjoy watching other sports, such as football, particularly his favorite team, the Dallas Cowboys. Also, anyone who say Norris' handwriting knew his writing expertise could have easily been used as a calligraphy or has a computer font. Along those lines, he was an artist too. If you placed a pen and paper in his hands, he would pucker his lips and commence to drawing whatever was suggested or desired. Norris Dale had a lot of undeniable potential that he wanted to be realized. Norris Dale love life within the realm of happiness that he could reach or was afforded to him. After a while, he grew tired of preaching and transitioned into the arms of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on Sunday June, 4, 2020.

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God, believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, I would have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you; and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you with me that you also may be where I am." (John 14:1-3)

Norris was preceded in death by his parents, Christine and Marell McClendon; two sisters, Shelley Cox and Mae Rosie McClendon, and other close family members.
