I remember as a kid when Uncle James would come home to Alabama and how excited we all were. We were that way about all of our uncles, they were and are great men who were sharp dresser who always shined their shoes! But I remember on one particular visit he came home in a brand new car with a personalized license plate, and it said "GODANDI." That epitomized who he was and what he stood for. While I am sad because he has shed his earthly home, I rejoice that he is now in his heavenly home! Aunt Ann, I pray for your strength. God will see you through! Trunetta Shelton Reese

Uncle James was Known as The Favorite Uncle. He Was The One Who Taught Me To Drive. I Was Nineteen and We Were Taking A Ride When He Stopped on Minnie Lou Street, Got Out and Said For Me To Drive the Car Home and Walked Away. He Trusted Me To Bring My Mom's, Mrs Otha Ree Martin-Smith, Brand New 1987 Chrysler 5th Avenue, Back Home. With Much Fear and Trembling I Did Get The Car Safely Home. There Was My Uncle James Standing There Smiling And He Said I Knew You Could Do It!!! My Uncle, Prophet James Shelton, a Godly Man of Faith Will Certainly Be Missed. Love You Uncle! Uncle Prophet(later added James as middle name) will always be remembered. My mother (Minnie his older sister) has 9 brothers some are deceased now but 4 out of the 9 came and stayed at our home in Tuscaloosa once they left the farm in Sumpter Country. He worked at the Central Foundry Plant many years. before moving to California..Back then he always used magic shaving power for a smother shave. He always kept a clean shine car, and you never would catch him going out in a short sleeve shirt, he prefers long sleeves and they were white, a sharpe dresser and at that time he smoked cigars(the best-selling brands).We had a cousin that lived in California so he went there. Before il completed High school I would tear pictures out of fashion magazines and he would sent me clothes, later I married a service guy and lived in San Francisco on a visit at his then gas station I learned to pump gas. Over the years he would always come to Alabama to hunt and most often on my father's farm. You will be missed the fall is your hunting season your niece Julia in Dayton Ohio
