I never got to meet you in person, but I loved you just the same! I made my first ever old fashioned tp cover for you last year! My kids still get a kick out of the pictures of that Barbie in the tp! You were a sister of this horrific disease! I pray for all those who love you and are left behind! I am comforted in knowing that you are done with pain forever! Miss you and love you my sweet friend!!!

Nicole I thank God for getting to know you these last year 4 years of our Kenny and your daughter as a couple and will soon be getting married in the near future. I know on that special day you will be with us in spirit. Pastor Parks and myself will continue to love Jahmekya, our grand daughter Kelani, and will keep in touch with your mother and husband. We we are going to miss you, but will forever be in our hearts. God was ready for you to come home to him. What a glorious time you are having now. No more pain. RIP Nicole.Larry and Kathie Parks

Nicole, I was blessed to be able to speak with you recently. It was the first time someone called me "Little Keith" in over 20 years. That conversation brought back some good ol' memories. I miss you, but take comfort knowing you're resting in the eternal grace of God.
