Gracy Lene Madison

FEB 21, 1947 - MAR 17, 2022

Services for Gracy Lene Madison, 75, of Lufkin will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, March 26, 2022, at the Church by Christ Jesus. Burial will follow in the Cedar Grove Cemetery. Mrs. Madison was born on February 21, 1947, in Groveton, and died Thursday, March 17, 2022, in Lufkin.

Mrs. Gracy Lene Madison was born in the Groveton, Pennington Community on February 21, 1947, to the late Alverta Mae Sweat and William Richard Davis.

Gracy became a member of the Church of the Living God in Groveton, Texas at an early age. She later united with Noble Temple COGIC under the leadership of the late Superintendent Noble Cooper. Gracy became a member of God's Prayer Revival Center in Lufkin, Texas under the leadership of Evangelist Bessie Everidge. She later became a member of the Gospel Lighthouse COGIC of Kennard, Texas, under the leadership of Superintendent Haywood Henderson Jr. She was presently under the leadership of Bishop Cleo Hale at Outreach Ministries of Lufkin, Texas. She was always faithful and worked in the church on whatever her hands found to do. She was a willing worker for the Lord. She also was a devoted Phone Ministry to many, and very dedicated to writing and sending cards to inmates and to anyone who needed encouragement along the way.

Gracy united in marriage to James Madison, and born to this union were a daughter and four sons. She had been employed at Lufkin Memorial Hospital of Lufkin, Texas, where she worked as a Certified Nurse Assistant for many years. She also worked in the Labor and Delivery Calder II and the Specialty Unit. Gracy earned the title of lead CNA in the 1960s and was laid off returning later retiring in 2003.

My mother, Evangelist Will ie Mae Mark, really enjoyed and appreciated your kindness and friendship. While serving on the Mother's board at church she began to connect to being a member with other willing workers in the church. Our family wishes to extend our deepest sympathies during this time for your family. Oh how she loved to speak about her one and only daughter. Such cherished memories memories from Mother Madison
