They are too many memories to talk about Momma Brown but the one that stands out the most to me was the first time that I went over to their house. I get a knock on my door one evening and there stands Momma Brown and Jennifer. Momma Brown says how you doing now come on with us for a hot meal. Jennifer says, girl just say yes and come on now.... So long story short I had no stove or fridge so was eating lots of cold stuff and living with a ice chest... And Jennifer told Momma about it so from then on until I had saved enough to get a stove and fridge there were many times she feed me hot meals and great company with all the family. I loved her so very much for her showing kindness, joy, love.Sytha
