Jamie L. Stansberry

SEP 28, 1941 - AUG 30, 2022

Mr. Jamie L. Stansberry, 80, of Lufkin will be held Saturday, September 3, 2022 at 12:00 noon in the First Missionary Baptist Church, 410 Scarbrough St., Lufkin, TX. Burial will follow in the Pisgah Cemetery in Broadus, TX. Visitation is from 11:00 a.m. till time of services at First Missionary Baptist Church.

The heart that Jamie received in surgery years ago, held true to the doctors word, and lasted for twenty years. On August 30, 2022, that heart beat it's last beat, and Jamie spiritually departed from his body at Woodland Heights Hospital in Lufkin, Texas. For we know God's word says: "to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." 2 Corinthians 5:8

Jamie was birthed into this world on September 28, 1941 in San Augustine, Texas, to Arnette (Jones) Dodd and Charlie Stansberry. He was the eldest of three sons. He departed as a widower having recently lost his wife, Roberta Stansberry on August 12, 2022. They were married for fifty nine years. After employment with Lufkin Paper Mill, Jamie became self employed by Bush Hauling and mowing lots for the City of Lufkin. He especially mowed and maintained his own yard to perfection, winning Lufkin's title of Most Beautiful Yard. He believed in rising early and staying busy. He was a true Outdoors-man and loved his farm, horses, gardening, Heavy Duty Trucks, Trail Rides, fish fries, barbeques and family reunions. He had a true entrepreneurial heart and spirit...always looking for a way to make money. Above all, he was a very 'faithful,' devoted and contributing member of First Missionary Baptist Church.

Leaving To Cherish Him In Their Hearts & Memories: Children: Son/daughter-in-law, Hiram Tyrone Blake and Rhonda Blake; Daughter, Miriam Stansberry; Grandchildren, Marktez Alexander, Mitzi Stansberry and Markeshia Moore; Great-Grandchildren, Markayla, Jordan, Jakevin, Jakevon and Reign; A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and friends.
