Mr. Norman Crisp, 58 of Lufkin, is scheduled 11 a.m., at Pines Theater, 113 S. First St, Lufkin. Burial will follow in the Davis Memorial Garden. Mr. Crisp was born on May 4, 1965, and died on Monday, July 3, 2023, in Conroe.

Norman Crisp, Sr. was born on May 4, 1965 to the parentage of Cassandra Jones and Mac Arthur Mitchell.

He attended Forest Brook High School. Norman was an entrepreneur and had several businesses throughout his life, including a Detail Shop, Car Lot and Nightclubs. Norman was the life of the party, and was always dressed to perfection from head to toe every time you saw him. Norman loved his family and would do anything for them. He also cared about people and would help anyone he came across. He never met a stranger. He' s known for being ajokester and was always talking noise. He meant something different to everyone he met, but they all loved him in their own way.

He first met his wife Angie in 1999, and after many years of dating and sharing life, they wed on January 1, 2015. He loved all of his grand-kids dearly, but had a very special bond with one in particular, Messiah Crisp. For those that truly knew him, knew that in Norman's words, Messiah was Pappas' Boy, and you rarely saw him without Messiah.
