Cecelia was my classmate, but oddly I feel closer to her mother. Valarie always could relate to me and help me process my thoughts and feelings. And in her wisdom, she always made things better for me. She has never dismissed me or turned a blind eye - even when I thought I was invisible. She was the first welcoming familiar face I'd see once I came back to Diboll always flashing her beautiful signature smile. I'm so glad I got to speak with her before her passing, but was shocked to just learn the news. Valarie will be missed and my prayers for her family!

Valerie I remember back when we were kids playing jump rope and 4 square running around the projects and playing tag 🏏. Fighting one day playing a few hours later. Those were the times of our lives. I will never forget those precious moments. May your journey be peaceful home 🏠. Rest easy sweet friend
